

Summer 2023 – Second Session

French Language and Culture

Instructor: Olivier B. Soustelle, M.A.

Email - Olivier.Soustelle@evergreen.edu

Important Information:

- All classes are remote (on Zoom)
- All class materials will be on the course Canvas site (no textbooks to purchase)
- Open to students who have never had French before!! If you have had some French but feel rusty and want to review foundational grammar plus increase your conversational ability and knowledge of French culture, this course is great for you, too!
- Class begins Tuesday, July 30 and meets via Zoom
- Classes are on Tuesdays and Thursdays 6pm-8:50pm
- Professor is a native French speaker with 20 years' experience teaching French at Evergreen and many other Washington State Colleges and high schools.

Class Description:

In this engaging class, students will gain a foundational knowledge of French grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation skills, with an emphasis on understanding and speaking French in real-life situations. The native French instructor will interweave material on French and Francophone music, film, food, geography, art, and historical sites throughout the course as students learn about contemporary French society and culture.

Students will practice their conversation skills by working regularly in small groups. To successfully participate in this program, students will need a reliable internet connection to access course activities (synchronous and asynchronous) and content. Our work will be conducted remotely, using Zoom, Canvas and YouTube.
