

French- Second (or Third) Year I CRN 10067

Faculty: Rebecca Raitses

rebecca.raitses@evergreen.edu

If you've had at least two quarters of college French or two years of High School French, this is the place for you! This course is the first quarter of a continuing, year-long sequence in French language and cultural study that supports French language acquisition through interactive exercises and emphasizes communicative activities that elicit authentic expression in French. Classes are lively and fast-paced with a wide variety of creative, fun activities including music, literature and videos. If you are a third year French student, please reach out to the faculty to register for the third year CRN.
