

Psychology
Conference: Western Psychological Association

Catalog Description

Spring 2026

evergreen

Western Psychological Association (WPA) conference

Date: April 30–May 3, 2026

Location: Tacoma, Washington

 Required: Attend a minimum of 20 hours of presentations at the conference.

The faculty will register you for the conference. Your student account will be assessed the $95 registration fee.

Transportation, lodging, and food for the WPA conference (approximately $250). Students will be expected to arrange their own travel, lodging, and meals.

More information about WPA

WPA conference (more)

If you register for this class after March 24, you will need to register for the conference on your own, including paying for the conference registration yourself.

If you register for this class after March 31, your convention registration cost will increase to $145, and you will have to pay for this yourself.

Requirements

Before the conference, attend a planning meeting on Tuesday, March 31, 2026, 1:30–4:00 pm (Location: Sem I 3202).

During the conference, attend 20 hours of presentations (minimum).

After the conference, write a paper about your conference activities.

Credits and CRN

Anticipated credit equivalencies

2 – Psychology: Professional
Conference Attendance

CRN

30073

Fees

$95 covers fee for conference registration

Catalog description

This course involves travel to the Western Psychological Association (WPA) conference in Tacoma, Washington (April 30-May 3, 2026) which attracts 3000+ students and professionals of psychology. It showcases the topics and cutting edge research in all areas of psychology. Many events are specifically geared towards helping students network and learn what is needed to succeed in a career in psychology.

Requirements for the course are attending a planning meeting, attending 20 hours of presentations (minimum) during the conference, and writing a paper about your conference activities after the conference. At the beginning of Spring Break, students who are enrolled will be contacted by email about conference registration.

Faculty information

 Nathalie Yuen, PhD (she/her)

 nathalie.yuen@evergreen.edu

 SEM 2 E-4108