

“A Time for Gathering”: The 2nd Annual INDIGENOUS CLIMATE JUSTICE SYMPOSIUM MAY 4-5, 2017

Longhouse Education and Cultural Center,
The Evergreen State College, Olympia WA

THURSDAY, MAY 4

10:00-12:30 Opening/Student Presentations

1:30-3:00 Northwest Fossil Fuels Resistance

3:00-4:30 Legacies of Standing Rock

7:00-9:30pm Faith Spotted Eagle

(Ihanktonwan Dakota/Nakota), a key leader in the fights to stop the Keystone XL & Dakota Access Pipelines, and recipient of one electoral vote for President.

Faith Spotted Eagle

FRIDAY, MAY 5

10:00-12:30 Tribal Climate Change Resilience

1:30-4:30 Workshops on resilience, allyship, education, global perspectives.

7:00-9:30pm Rueben George

(Tsleil-Waututh First Nation), a key leader in the fight to stop the KinderMorgan Pipeline in B.C., with his son Cedar George-Parker.

Rueben
George

SUNDAY, MAY 7

Indigenous Youth Day at

Nisqually Youth Center.

Tribal youth interested in fossil fuel & climate justice invited. See website for details.

Climate Change & Pacific Rim Indigenous Nations Project

<https://sites.evergreen.edu/indigenoussclimate>

Thanks to Nisqually Charitable Fund, Nisqually Environmental Team, Evergreen's Clean Energy Committee, President's Equity Fund, Native Programs, and Native Student Alliance, and South Puget Sound Community College