Famine, a sequence (Desmond Egan)

the stink of famine hangs in the bushes still in the sad Celtic hedges you can catch it down the line of our landscape get its taste on every meal listen

there is famine in our music famine behind our faces it is only a field away has made us all immigrants guilty for having survived has separated us from language cut us from our culture built blocks around belief left us on our own ashamed to be seen walking out beauty so honoured by our ancestors but fostered now to peasants the drivers of motorway diggers unearthing bones by accident under the disappearing hills
