

MULDOON, THE SOLID MAN

I am a man of great in-flu-ence, and e-du-ca-ted to a high de-gree; I
 5 came when small from Do-ne-gal, and my cou-sin Jim-my came a-long with me. On the ci-ty road I<sup>3</sup> was 10 si-tu-a-ted in a lodg-ing house with me bro-ther Dan, till by 13 per-se-ver-ance I el-e-va-ted, and I went to the front like a so-lid man.

I am a man of great influence, and educated to a high degree
 I came when small from Donegal and my cousin Jimmy came along with me
 On the city road I was situated in a lodging house with me brother Dan
 Till by perseverance I elevated, and I went to the front like a solid man.

Chorus:

So come with me, and I will treat you decent
 I'll sit you down and I will fill your can
 And along the street all the friends I meet
 Say "There goes Muldoon, he's a solid man."

At any party or at a raffle, I always go as an invited guest
 As conspicuous as the great Lord Mayor, boys, I wear a nosegay upon me chest
 And when called upon for to address the meeting, with no regard for clique or clan
 I read the Constitution with great elocution, because you see, I am a solid man.

(Chorus)

I control the Tombs, I control the island, my constituents they all go there
 To enjoy their summer's recreation and take the enchanting East River air
 I am known in Harlem, I'm known in Jersey, I am welcomed hearty at every hand
 And come what may on St. Patrick's Day, I march away like a solid man.

(Chorus)
